60週年專刊 60th Anniversary Special Edition

過去60年來，為配合社會發展提供最優質的教育，學院在教學的形式、時間，課程類型上，亦歷經幾許轉變。學院教學得以靈活配合社會變遷，全賴教職員的不懈努力。為表謝意，繼第一期「60年成長路」後，學院再製作「60年教學路」書刊，並隨本刊附奉。

Over the past 60 years, the School has changed its teaching methods and programmes to ensure it is offering the courses the public needs at the highest standards. It is entirely due to the unremitting efforts of our staff that the School can cope with the constant changes in society so smoothly. As a gesture of gratitude, in addition to the "60 Years of Growing" leaflet, the School has also compiled the attached "60 Years of Teaching".

為慶祝學院成立60週年，學院在香港大會堂展覽廳舉辦了「大師風範藝術展覽」。是次展覽的開幕酒會於2016年12月28日圓滿結束，一連五日的展覽亦反應熱烈，吸引了數百人到場參觀欣賞。

港大附屬學院迎新春

Welcoming the New Year at HKU SPACE Community College

太空盤菜宴

Poon Choi in SPACE

附屬學院於本年2月10日元宵節前夕舉行「太空盤菜宴」，約150位師生與校友回到學院，一起享受豐盛晚宴，共慶團圓。當晚更設有猜燈謎活動，讓大家在感受傳統節日氣氛之餘，又可以動動腦筋，更有幸運大抽獎環節，師友們都盡興而歸。

Poon Choi is the perfect dish to share with loved ones during Chinese New Year.

The School held a "Poon Choi in SPACE" event on the eve of the Lantern Festival on 10 February. Around 150 teachers, students and alumni went back to School to enjoy the reunion feast.

The traditional activity of guessing lantern riddles was organised to let our guests rack their brains while enjoying the atmosphere of the traditional festival. A Lucky Draw was also held which teachers and friends alike thoroughly enjoyed.

Students Launch Flower Market Booth

港大附屬學院學生會成員今年首次參加維多利亞公園農曆年宵市場，與大眾同慶雞年來臨。年宵攤位由十多名學生會成員營運，在學習營銷之餘亦可以感受一下新年的氣氛。

在學院的「緣喜餅店」外，看到店面上掛著一個個巨型的雞尾包及瑞士卷形攬枕，參與的同學們表示，他們選擇雞尾包，並不只為呼應雞年的來臨，更加因為它意義深遠：「雞尾包是由製作其他麵包時所剩下的材料混合而成的，所以我們香港人都應該學習『雞尾包』精神，集合有用的東西，締造更美好的事情。」

於本年1月22日開張之日，附屬學院校長陳龍生教授更與一眾教職員到場，與同學們切燒豬及剪綵，希望事事順利、生意興隆。

This year, in celebration of the Year of the Rooster, around ten HKU SPACE students set up a stall in the Chinese New Year Flower Market in Victoria Park for the first time to help improve their business skills while enjoying the New Year atmosphere.

Outside the "Yuen Hei Bakery" stall, some gigantic cushions, shaped like cocktail buns and Swiss rolls, created one of the most eye-catching spots.

One of the students explained that besides echoing the Year of the Rooster, the choice of cocktail buns also had a profound meaning. "Cocktail buns are made from the leftover ingredients of other breads, I think that Hongkongers can also learn from this "cocktail buns" spirit and combine other useful materials to create gorgeous things."

During the opening ceremony on 22 January, Professor Lung-sang Chan, Principal of the HKU SPACE Community College, and other teaching staff performed the roast pig and ribbon cutting ceremony to pray for the success of the stall.

頒授第三屆榮譽院士

The Third Honorary Fellowship

學院早前舉辦第三屆榮譽院士頒授典禮，表揚對學院有深遠貢獻，或在終身學習上有不凡成就的人士。2016年，共有四名傑出人士獲頒榮譽院士銜，包括陸宏廣博士、顏金施女士、沈雪明教授及蕭曾鳳群女士。

榮譽院士頒授典禮於去年12月8日在香港大學黃麗松講堂隆重舉行，逾200名來自不同界別的嘉賓，一同出席見證盛典。學院院長李經文教授為典禮致歡迎辭，再由學院董事局主席陳坤耀教授主持頒授儀式，並由常務副院長（文學及科學）陳永華教授、常務副院長（行政及資源）陳阮德徽博士、常務副院長（商學及中國發展）劉寧榮教授及常務副院長（學務）祁樂彬博士致讚辭以表揚各榮譽院士。

香港大學專業進修學院榮譽院士銜於2014年成立，目的旨在表揚長期為學院提供優質及卓越的服務、與學院淵源深厚的人士，以及在終身學習方面表現傑出及對終身學習貢獻良多的人士。

The Third Honorary Fellowship Ceremony was held on 8 December last year in the Rayson Huang Theatre at the University Main Campus. Honorary fellowships were conferred on Dr John Luk, Ms Wendy Gan, Professor S. M. Shen and Mrs Siu Tsang Fung Kwan. Professor William K. M. Lee, Director of HKU SPACE, gave the welcoming speech to over 200 guests, while Professor Edward K. Y. Chen, Chairman of the Board of HKU SPACE presided over the ceremony.

Citations were delivered by Professor W. W. Chan, Deputy Director (Arts and Sciences), Dr Dorothy T. F. Chan, Deputy Director (Administration and Resources), Professor N. R. Liu, Deputy Director (Business and China) and Dr John Cribbin, Deputy Director (Academic Services).

學院新任常務副院長（文學及科學）

An Interview with Professor Sonny S. H. Lo
the new Deputy Director (Arts and Sciences)

歷史、政治，相信是不少人嗤之以鼻的學科，甚至聯想到權謀詭詐、硝煙四起的殺戮戰場，但對學院新任常務副院長（文學及科學）盧兆興教授來說，卻是可以窮一生精力去解構當中玄機的趣味謎題。

盧教授稱，仍記得他們的首次邂逅始於中學時代，「為何中學的中國歷史課程會以辛亥革命作結？1911年後的中國是怎樣的呢？心中一個個的謎團，激發我去了解更多。」升讀大學時，他選擇了香港大學歷史系，但開學不久便隨家人移民加拿大。

曾到過不同國家地區教學的盧教授，原來在十多年前，也曾應學院之邀到內地教授公共行政課程。未來，他計劃為學院研發更多「網上學習」的可能性，並將於下半年邀請業界翹楚舉行座談會，交流發展經驗。

It seems that courses on history and politics are being sniffed at by more and more people these days. Or they are simply linking these topics to blood-stained battlefields, Machiavellian power struggles, and the smoke of gunpowder. However, for Professor Sonny S. H. Lo, the freshly minted Deputy Director (Arts and Sciences), history and politics are worth spending a lifetime exploring.

Professor Lo still remembers how he first encountered the two subjects in his secondary school days, "Why does the secondary school Chinese history syllabus end with the revolution of 1911? What happened to China after 1911? These mysteries aroused my interest," Professor Lo said. That's why he majored in History at the University of Hong Kong, but later emigrated to Canada not long after the school term started.

In the 1980s, Beijing and London first started discussing the future of Hong Kong. As a new immigrant in Canada, Professor Lo paid a lot of attention to the discussions, while also starting to think more about democracy. This led him to apply for a Bachelor of Politics degree at York University.

Since then, he often walked around China Town looking for newspapers covering Hong Kong current affairs to keep up with the latest developments in the city. He also often lingered in the history and politics corner of the library to learn more about the political dynamics of different regions, the underlying trends over the time and how these factors helped to mould their current social environments.

While maintaining his library lingering habits, Professor Lo also took steps to broaden his interest in academic writing and published several books in order to share his enjoyment with fellow history and politics buffs. He has also taught in many different countries and regions and was invited to teach public administration in mainland China about a decade ago.

In the future, he plans to explore more online learning opportunities offered by the School and invite top educational gurus to hold forums in the second half the year to share their experiences.

一點鐘講堂：修心養身

Lunchtime Talks to Nurture Soul and Body

都市人日常生活繁忙，往往難以抽身學習。有見及此，學院早前再度舉辦一點鐘講堂，讓大家可以善用午膳時間，知多一點點。

《從「第三齡」到「人生第三樂章」》講座於本年1月11日在金鐘海富中心順利舉行，到場人數眾多。講者張燦輝教授從古今中外的名著跟大家一同探討人生的「第三齡」。「第三齡」不一定指退休人士，而是指工作多年後，終可悠然享受閒暇，並專注於知性與德性成長的人士。「人生第三樂章」的序曲，其實可透過持續進修來展開。

It is often difficult for busy urbanites to spare time for learning. So the School recently started organising 1pm lunchtime talks once again to help people use their lunch hour to learn a little bit more.

The 1pm Lunch Talk: From “The Third Age” to “The Third Movement of Life” was held at Admiralty Centre on 11 January this year and attracted a large audience.

Professor Cheung Chan Fai explored the meaning of “The Third Age” through literary works from the ancient to contemporary periods and Chinese and foreign cultures. “The Third Age” does not necessarily mean being retired. It refers to people who have the capacity to advance in intellectual and moral growth. To start our own “Third Movement of Life”, we could all simply pursue lifelong education.

而《春天養生防病之中醫原則》，由香港大學中醫臨床中心及中藥房主任梁榮能教授主講，吸引了接近100位觀眾到場。梁教授由五臟六腑說起，解釋何謂「春困」，並推介春季養生食，教大家如何在生活習慣及情緒上著手，在新年伊始為自己打造強健好體魄。

“The Chinese Medicine Principles of Nurturing the Body and Preventing Sickness in Spring” had Professor Albert W. N. Leung, Head of the Chinese Medicine Clinic and Pharmacy of the University of Hong Kong as the main speakers and attracted nearly 100 attendees. Professor Leung started from the five viscera and six bowels and explained the concept of “Spring Fever”. He also made recommendations on healthy eating in Spring and gave tips on how to build a strong and healthy body at the beginning of the year starting from one's lifestyle and managing one's emotions.

新加坡教育部 代表團到訪學院

Delegation from Singapore Ministry of Education

學院早前獲新加坡教育部代表成員到訪，由學院院長李經文教授、常務副院長（行政及資源）陳阮德徽博士及常務副院長（學務）祁樂彬博士代表迎接。雙方於會面中交流分享兩地高等教育的運作及發展。

期後，代表團更參觀了學院位於金鐘的教學中心及國際學院，實地體驗學院的運作模式。

訪問團由新加坡教育部（未來技能計劃）副秘書及計劃行政總裁黃子鵬先生率領其團員進行交流。

The School recently received a delegation from the Ministry of Education, Singapore. On behalf of the School, Professor William K. M. Lee, Director of HKU SPACE, Dr Dorothy T. F. Chan, Deputy Director (Administration and Resources) and Dr John Cribbin, Deputy Director (Academic Services) welcomed the delegates. Both parties exchanged views on continuing education in Hong Kong and Singapore.

The group toured around the Admiralty learning centre and the neighbouring International College to learn more about the School's operation and facility management.

The delegation was led by Mr Ng Cher Pong, Deputy Secretary (SkillsFuture), Ministry of Education and Chief Executive of SkillsFuture Singapore who enjoyed a meaningful exchange of ideas and opinions during the visit.

低碳運輸高層圓桌討論會 High Level Roundtable on Clean and Low Carbon Transport Solutions

與世界其他大城市相較，香港獲評為擁有最發達、可靠、頻繁和完善的公共交通網絡。然而，路邊空氣污染問題，特別是汽車排放出來的廢氣，是香港面對的一大挑戰。為了規管空氣污染及排碳量，使用低污染及低碳的汽車燃料，實是一個重要的議題。

由香港科技大學能源研究院及香港大學專業進修學院合辦的高層圓桌討論會已於2月27日舉行。香港科技大學機械及航空航天工程學系趙天壽教授、香港城市大學生物及化學系譚鳳儀教授、前環境局常任秘書長王倩儀女士為活動致歡迎辭。出席者包括政府、機構及業內相關人士。

兩場討論會分別由香港科技大學邵敏華教授及趙汝恒教授主持，參與討論的著名講者包括瑞典駐港領事館總領事賀思桐女士、SCANIA可持續發展方案總監馬山大先生，以及清華大學兼香港科技大學能源研究院客座教授李十中博士。

逾50位來自香港大學、香港科技大學、香港城市大學、香港理工大學及清華大學的參加者出席是次活動。會上主要討論如何達至一個真正低污染及低碳的交通系統、可再生能源於商業及環境方面的發展，以及為香港及中國建構可持續交通系統。

Hong Kong has been rated as having the most connected, reliable, frequent and well-maintained public transport network against other top cities in the world. However, the street level pollution and emissions from our transport system, especially from motor vehicles, has been one of the major air quality challenges in Hong Kong. Therefore a clean and low carbon fuel for motor vehicles is essential to control air pollution and carbon emission for a better Hong Kong.

A high level round table discussion was co-organised by Energy Institute, Hong Kong University of Science and Technology (HKUST) and HKU SPACE on 27 February. It was attended by stakeholders from government, institutions and industries. Professor Tianshou Zhao, Chair professor, Department of Mechanical Engineering and Aerospace Engineering, HKUST, Professor Nora Tam, Department of Biology and Chemistry, City University of Hong Kong, and Ms Anissa Wong, former Permanent Secretary for the Environment delivered the opening addresses highlighting issues of concern to Hong Kong.

Transport Solutions, Scania Asia and Oceania, and Professor Li Shi Zhong, Tsinghua University and visiting Professor, the HKUST Energy Institute.

There were over 50 participants and academics from HKU, HKUST, City University, Polytechnic University and Tsinghua University. The discussion focused on essentials for a truly clean and low carbon transport system, future of bio-renewables from business and environmental perspectives and the development of a sustainable transport system for Hong Kong and mainland China.

Two separate sessions were chaired by Professor Minhua Shao and Professor Christopher Chao of HKUST with three other renowned speakers including Ms Helen Storm, Consulate General of Sweden in Hong Kong, Mr Alexander Mastrovito, Head of Sustainable

校友週活動回顧 Alumni Week Activities

一年一度的學院校友週，以「Making Space for Life to Live」為主題，鼓勵校友於百忙中不要忽略平衡生活的重要性，一系列的活動吸引了超過300名校友參加。

慈山寺座落於山上，遠離繁囂，環境清幽，尤適合忙碌的都市人淨化心靈。在導賞員的講解下，校友透過欣賞寺內建築，認識漢傳佛教。校友會亦為注重綠色生活的校友舉辦了天然護膚品工作坊，由專業導師教授製作花香洗面乳及薰衣草身體乳霜，學習以天然材料護理皮膚。

此外，凱基證券執行董事及研究部主管鄭民彬先生則與校友分析環球資金流向及投資策略，展望2017年的經濟境況。適逢秋冬季節交替敏感症頻生，註冊中醫師林家揚博士教導校友，以食療及按摩舒緩鼻敏感症狀，亦分享了各種保健方法。

This year's alumni week takes the theme of "Making Space for Life to Live" and reminds alumni not to overlook the importance of a balanced life even in today's stressful world. A series of events attracted over 300 alumni.
