To be eligible for the award of Certificate in Legal Studies, a student must ordinarily attend not less than 70% of scheduled classes and satisfactorily complete all assessments. Assessment includes in-class assessment (which is 25% of the final grade) and final examinations (which are 75% of the final grade).

Admission Requirements

Enrolment for the Certificate in Legal Studies is on a first-come, first-served basis, with an open entry policy for individuals interested in legal studies.

Programme eligibility requires individuals to have the right to live and study in Hong Kong.

Become A Legal Executive

Students can qualify as Legal Executives by completing the Certificate and Diploma in Legal Studies (Professional Stream) followed by 3 subjects on the Advanced Diploma in Legal Studies (which normally takes approximately 6-9 months).

This professional title can only be used by students who complete an Approved Legal Executive Course recognized by the Law Society of Hong Kong, and the Advanced Diploma in Legal Studies was one of the first courses recognized by the Law Society for this purpose.

Legal Executives are also assistants to lawyers who help in carrying out many types of legal work, and this professional title is widely recognized by law firms in Hong Kong.

Fast Track Towards PCLL

 To work as a Legal Executive, students must also satisfy eligibility requirements set by the Law Society. For more information, please contact the Law Society directly.*

The Law Society's eligibility requirements only apply to students when they start using the title of Legal Executive. They are not requirements for entry to the Certificate in Legal Studies and students can enrol on the Certificate in Legal Studies without meeting these qualifications.

Fast Track Towards PCLL

Students who embark on the Certificate in Legal Studies (Professional Stream) are offered a distinctive and cost-effective pathway towards becoming qualified lawyers in Hong Kong. By completing the Advanced Diploma for Legal Executives (Graduate Level), students fulfill all the necessary law subjects required for admission into the PCLL (Postgraduate Certificate in Laws) programme. Our students have achieved remarkable success in securing spots in both full-time and part-time PCLL programmes at the University of Hong Kong and other PCLL providers.

Guaranteed pathway to popular programmes

All students who complete the Diploma in Legal Studies are guaranteed places on the very popular University of London International Programmes LL.B. degree first year preparation courses[#] run by HKU SPACE.

Students who have completed the Advanced Diploma in Legal Studies and who receive a Distinction on the Diploma in Legal Studies are also guaranteed places on the highly competitive Graduate Diploma in English and Hong Kong Law (Common Professional Examination)^{} offered by Manchester Metropolitan University with HKU SPACE, which is another popular pathway towards the PCLL.

Admission to the Graduate Diploma in English and Hong Kong Law (Common Professional Examination)[#] is normally only open to University graduates, however, this restriction can be waived for students who complete the Advanced Diploma in Legal Studies.*

^{}Non-Local Higher and Professional Education (Regulation) Ordinance This is an exempted course under the Non-Local Higher and Professional Education (Regulation) Ordinance. It is a matter of discretion for individual employers to recognize any qualification to which this course may lead.
