Cambridge Assessment English
Authorised Linguaskill Agent in Hong Kong (HK189)

Linguaskill – the NEW Cambridge English Language Benchmark Test

Linguaskill is an online test to help you check your English proficiency levels. It tests all four language skills:

- speaking
- writing
- reading
- listening

The same test is used for all abilities. There are two test options:

- General
- Business

Cambridge Assessment English - the University of Cambridge

Cambridge Assessment English, part of the University of Cambridge, provides the world's leading range of English language qualifications for higher education institutions. Linguaskill is one of them.

Globally recognised by more than 20,000 leading universities, employers and governments, this test is a mark of excellence and give learners the skills they need to succeed.

Linguaskill Test & Continuing Education Fund

This is the benchmark test in support of your Continuing Education Fund (CEF).

HKU SPACE Business and General English students, on completion of their course, should do this test. Attainment of the stipulated proficiency level specified in their course requirements will qualify them to CEF claim applications for their course and test fees paid.

For details, visit:
https://www.wfsfaa.gov.hk/cef/en/language/claimants.htm OR https://www.wfsfaa.gov.hk/cef/tc/language/claimants.htm

Linguaskill General

Linguaskill General tests English used in daily life, making it suitable for university admission and recruitment for roles in a non-business-specific environment. For example, where the employees need strong English skills to perform their role effectively, but does not need specialist business terminology. The test is suitable for a broad range of organisations. Test topics include studying and working, making future plans, travel and technology.

Linguaskill General Test Modules include:

1. Reading and Listening*
2. Writing
3. Speaking

* SPACE General English / English Language Skills CEF Claimants are required to pass the Reading and Listening Test at the stipulated level.

Linguaskill Business

Linguaskill Business tests English used in a business and corporate setting. Apart from using this as a benchmark test in support of CEF applications for claims, Linguaskill Business is best used for recruitment in organisations where employees are expected to be familiar with the language of business. It is suitable for large or small organisations, which may be operating on an international level.

Test topics include the buying and selling of products or services, the office, business travel and human resources.

For corporates, Linguaskill Business is the most ideal for shortlisting applicants and measuring their employees' English language competency on service commencement and performance appraisal.

Linguaskill Business and Corporates

For corporate businesses, Linguaskill Business is the most ideal for shortlisting applicants in their recruitment process, and measuring employees' English language competency as part of their performance appraisal system.

Linguaskill Business Test Modules include:

1. Reading and Listening*
2. Writing
3. Speaking

* SPACE Business English CEF Claimants are required to pass the Reading and Listening Test at the stipulated level.

SPACE English Language

The SPACE General English programme consists of 7 tiers with each becoming progressively more difficult. Each tier leads to its own academic awards, spanning from Foundation Certificate to Advanced Diploma in General English awarded within the HKU System through HKU SPACE.

Upon completion of each tier, students may progress to the next level programme by meeting the minimum entry requirements for admission to the specific programme.

Our overall aim is to give students on-going practice of language skills at an appropriate level of proficiency. Under the guidance of very well-qualified and experienced teachers, students are equipped with English knowledge and skills through language practice and student-centred learning activities such as small group discussion, reading, writing, speaking and listening to a wide variety of authentic and semi-authentic language texts.

Continuing Education Fund

With the exception of Tier 7 Advanced Diploma in General English programme, ALL General English and English Language Skills programmes (NOT single modules) programmes are CEF claimable. Upon application / before the course commences, a CEF Consent Form must be completed.

With effect from 1 April 2019, students are entitled to claim up to a maximum reimbursement of $20,000. Details can be found on page 143-144.

To be eligible for claiming a reimbursement for course fees on SPACE General English and Business English CEF-listed courses, applicants must pass the:

1. Attendance requirements (70%);
2. Performance requirements (50%); and
3. A recognised English Language benchmark test* at the stipulated proficiency level.

*Students must also note the following changes in test titles, as announced by the University of Cambridge:

(1) Before December 2019:
Business Language Testing Service (BULATS) Online Reading and Listening Test

(2) 1 January 2020 onwards:
Linguaskill General for General English and English Language Skills students, Linguaskill Business for students who successfully complete the Business English programmes.

English Language Instructors / Teachers

Instructors of the programmes are drawn from our panel of qualified and experienced English language teachers. Almost all of them are native speakers of English; others are local teachers with native speaker competence.

E-learning

All registered SPACE English Language students enjoy the privilege of taking part in FREE online e-learning activities and self-access learning resources materials.

English Immersion Activities

Expenses incurred in in English Immersion Activities are borne by individual Tier 7 Advanced Diploma in General English students.

Teaching & Teaching Venue

There is no guarantee that the teaching venue allocated for the entire course duration will be the same*. Depending on room availability, teaching venues may be different from those advertised at the time this Prospectus is published.

* (1) Students with classes in Tong Nai Kan, Kowloon West, should note that, in the case of closure of Po Leung Kuk Tong Nai Kan Junior Secondary School, the lessons thus affected will be transferred to other centres available at the time of booking.

(2) Should the demand arise, due to unexpected circumstances, to make up class(es) within a stipulated timeframe, virtual classes may be conducted to replace the normal face-to-face teaching-learning.

Fees

Fees shown in this Prospectus are indicative, subject to annual review.

Notes to Applicants for Admission to General English / English Language Skills Programmes

1. All applications will be processed on a first come, first served basis.
2. All application forms must be supported by copies of the relevant result letters showing your HKCEE/HKDSE/other publicly recognised English Language test results. Applicants who do not meet the entry requirements (See Entry Requirements on page 140.) or are unable to produce any documentary proof need to take the SPACE General English Entrance Examination.
3. Once registered, NO refunds for withdrawals and transfers to a different class will be approved.
4. Unless any changes are made to the announced details, NO joining instructions will be issued.
5. If your application has been accepted, you should go to the first session of the course at the time and venue shown.
6. Students under the age of 18 at the time of admission to the school have to submit the signed parent/guardian consent form (either English or Chinese version) to the school upon submitting their application and/or before the programme / course commences.

Notes to Non-Local Applicants / Non-Permanent Hong Kong Residents

The following non-local / non-permanent Hong Kong residents are eligible to study part-time English Language courses at HKU SPACE without making visa arrangements, ie they do not need prior approval before taking up part-time study courses:

1. those who study in Hong Kong and hold a student visa under HKU SPACE;
2. those who live in Hong Kong on one-way permits (單程證);
3. those admitted to Hong Kong as dependents;
4. those issued with a valid working/employment visa;
5. those who stay in Hong Kong under the Capital Investment Entrant Scheme; and
6. those issued with an Immigration Arrangement for Non-local Graduates (IANG)

It is the responsibility of individual applicants to ensure that their visas are valid and to make appropriate visa arrangements. Upon course enrolment, non-local applicants are required to show original copies of their permits and/or visas for verification purposes.

1855-1338NW	Fri, 6 Nov 2020, 7:00pm	Hong Kong side (To be confirmed)

* Enrol on the same day and enjoy Fee Waiver.
* Applicants taking the Entrance Exam on 26 September 2020 (Sat) should note:

Please pay the General English Entrance Exam Fee (HK$210) before the test which starts at 10:30am on Saturday (26 September). The Test Fee (HK$210) will be refunded to those who enrol into a General English course on the same day ie Saturday 26 September 2020.

A non-refundable fee of $210 is required for taking this test. Applicants for the test should fill out the special application form for the SPACE General English Entrance Examination to take the exam on a date that suits them. We will send out admission letters offering places after the exam sessions in good time to allow applicants ample time for course enrolment. Applicants who take an early exam will have a better chance of getting a place at a centre and time of their choice. Applicants who take a later exam will have a limited choice of classes.

There is no guarantee that everyone who takes the SPACE General English Entrance Examination will be offered a place in any of the tiers of the SPACE English Course. Candidates with examination performance below the Certificate in General English (Foundation) may be advised to take the Essential English course before continuing with higher level English language development programmes at HKU SPACE.

Candidates for SPACE General English Entrance Examination should note:
(1) Unless any change is made to the announced details, NO admission form will be issued.
(2) Candidates with official receipts should go to the exam session of their choice at the registered time and place.
(3) No refunds or transfers to a different exam session will be approved.

Non-Local Applicants / Non-Permanent Hong Kong Residents should note:

The following non-local / non-permanent Hong Kong residents are eligible to study part-time English Language courses at HKU SPACE without making visa arrangements (they do not need prior approval before taking up part-time study courses:
1 those who live in Hong Kong on one-way permits (單程證);
2 those admitted to Hong Kong as dependents;
3 those issued with a valid working/employment visa; and
4 those who stay in Hong Kong under the Capital Investment Entrant Scheme.

It is the responsibility of individual applicants to ensure that their visas are valid and to make appropriate visa arrangements. Upon course enrolment, non-local applicants are required to show original copies of their permits and/or visas during application of General English programmes.

NOTE:
The NEW CEF English language benchmark test for students of General English is: Linguaskill General. Details can be found on p.137.

British English Elocution
Programme Code: GENG9085

Application Code: 1850-1910NW

2975 5695 christy.mfc.chung@hkuspace.hku.hk

The word "elocution" refers to the art of careful public speaking, using clear pronunciation and good breathing to control the voice.

This short course is specially designed for advanced english speakers who wish to improve their professional image by modifying their accent to sound more like a native british english speaker. Learners will typically be employed or possess an interest in journalism, public relations, marketing, media and communications and live (simultaneous) translation, but motivated applicants in other fields will be considered. The determined student should finish with an understanding of his/her pronunciation 'issues' and of how to modify his/her accent over time, after the course has finished.

R Applicants should be graduates and willing to take part in discussions and practical reading aloud and speaking exercises, ideally with little inhibition. They should be reasonably confident and fluent English speakers.

Applicants should note that it takes self-awareness and persistence to permanently modify one's speaking accent.

Exploring Literature Series

HKU SPACE offers a series of short English literature courses. These courses are open to all who are interested in English literature or literary studies.

For students who are preparing themselves for internationally-recognised programmes in English / English literature, participation in these short courses offers them exposures to the aesthetics of literature, nurtures their literary sentiment, and stimulates their criticism on literary works and other genres.

A series of short literary courses which are open to all but they will be of particular interest to part-time students who need more exposure and input to English Literature.

The Bible as Literature
Programme Code: ELIT9097

Application Code: 1845-3172NW

2975 5695 christy.mfc.chung@hkuspace.hku.hk

The Bible is a source of inspiration that has given birth to many great works of literature throughout the last 20 centuries; an understanding of the Book is therefore of paramount importance to students who are interested in literary studies. The aim of this course is to introduce students to the Bible as a literary work, as well as a collection of books written in different genres. It will begin with an introduction to the historical and geographical backgrounds of the Old and New Testaments; and will then focus on specific books and genres.

R - Applicants are required to have reached the age of 18.
- Applicants should have a good reading knowledge of English, a willingness to participate in discussion and, above all, an interest in literature.
