Certificate in German (Intermediate)
Programme Code: EU003A

2975 5695

christy.mfc.chung@hkuspace.hku.hk

This programme can be taken upon successful completion of the Certificate in German (Introductory) or an equivalent programme of 110-130 hours. It enables students to consolidate language already learned and build on their grammar. As a result, students will feel increasingly confident in their communicative ability. By the end of the programme, students should be able to talk about topics such as families and friends, leisure activities, food and drink, past and future situations. They should also be able to understand the main ideas when listening and reading and write simple texts, e.g. postcards and emails.

R Applicants shall have:
- (a) obtained the Certificate in German (Introductory), awarded within the HKU system through HKU SPACE; or
- (b) studied approximately 110-130 hours of German at a different institution; and
- sufficient English proficiency to follow simple explanations in English.

Other applicants may be interviewed if necessary to confirm their suitability for the programme, e.g. if they have studied a similar number of hours elsewhere or have alternative experience learning the language, such as a study visit to the country.

In the absence of the evidence listed in (1), students should contact HKU SPACE by 1 August 2021 for further information.
