Technology has caused many organisations to review and change their traditional ways of running a business. This means that organisations need to reskill, upskill and develop new employee skills in order to meet the emerging skill needs of the organisation. Learning and development has become a major focus in human resource management (HR).

This programme aims to equip students with a core understanding of the principles and practices of learning and development from a HR perspective. It discusses the development and importance of learning and development in an organisation and covers topics such as how learning and development works, how to identify, execute and measure the success of a learning programme. It also covers the different styles of adult learning and evolving skills necessary for the future of work.

R Applicants shall:

- (a) have gained in the HKDSE Examination Level 2 in 5 subjects including English Language and Mathematics;

OR

- (b) (i) have gained in HKCEE Grade E in 4 subjects (including Mathematics) and Level 2 in English Language, OR equivalent; AND
- (ii) one A-level pass or two AS-level passes in any subject or other equivalent post-secondary qualifications; OR
- (c) hold a HKQF level 3 or equivalent Certificate in human resource management, business or related discipline.

Applicants who are aged 21 and above with relevant work experience will be considered on individual merit.
